1. Purpose. To implement provisions of references (a) through (i) and issue policy guidance for establishment and execution of the Navy Transition Assistance Program (TAP). This revision includes public law and policy updates issued from 2007 through 2016 and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 1900.2B.

3. Policy

   a. Mission. The primary mission of the TAP is to better prepare eligible Service members and their families to transition out of military service. The TAP is designed to assist all transitioning Service members with meeting their career readiness standards (CRS). CRS capitalize upon the skills and experiences gained during military service and are defined as a set of common and specific standards based on Service member-defined objectives they must achieve in order to meet their post-military service goals. Core CRS are standardized across all Military Services.

   b. Delivery. Transition services are delivered to all Navy personnel through a cooperative effort involving Department of Defense (DoD), Department of Labor (DOL), Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), Small Business Association (SBA), and many State, community, and non-profit service organizations.
c. Applicability. Transition services and transition benefits are separate and distinct. As required by reference (a), participation in TAP is mandatory for every Active Component (AC) and Reserve Component (RC) Service member separating after serving 180 continuous days or more of active duty. Personnel are eligible to receive transition services as early as 24 months prior to retirement. Personnel voluntarily separating may access transition services 12 months prior to their separation date. A Service member’s characterization of service, including “other than honorable,” “dishonorable,” or “bad conduct” discharge, does not affect eligibility to participate in the core components of TAP.

(1) For short notice separations, commanders must ensure members receive transition assistance as defined in this instruction prior to commencing separation proceedings.

(2) The TAP is standardized across DoD. Service members assigned to joint commands or who are located at a duty station near a DoD military installation offering transition services, may attend the Transition Goals, Plans, Success (GPS) course, quota dependent, to meet the requirements of this instruction.

(3) Proactive planning is required to ensure members attend Transition GPS before deployment or are released from deployment early enough to attend prior to separation. There is no authority to extend the end of active obligated service date for enlisted personnel, or date of approved separation for officers, in order to attend Transition GPS.

4. Transition Services. Core components of TAP are per subparagraphs 4a through 4f.

a. Military Life Cycle (MLC). Preparations to transition out of military service commence at the beginning of a military career and continue throughout the entire MLC. Portions of Transition GPS, CRS, and the processes that enable transitioning Sailors to meet these standards are introduced prior to pre-separation counseling or attendance at the mandatory Transition GPS course. The MLC aligns key transition activities with pre-determined “touch points” throughout the career of a Sailor. For enlisted personnel, the career development board is the primary means to implement the MLC using reference (b). For officers, mid-term counseling is used at these same “touch points” to discuss MLC topics, in addition to normal performance counseling. For specific “touch points” and topic information, see the Navy Personnel Command’s (NAVPERSCOM) Transition GPS Web site at http://www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/career/transition/Pages/TAP.aspx.

b. Individual Career Development Plan (ICDP). Per reference (b), the ICDP is developed to provide specific topics and guidance for each career development board across an enlisted Service member’s career. The ICDP assists members in establishing goals and milestones and allows them to chart a roadmap to success. The ICDP transforms into an individual transition plan (ITP) when a member begins the transition process.

c. Transition GPS. Transition GPS is the package of TAP resources and services used as a vehicle to enable Service members to attain their CRS, and includes:

   (1) DD Form 2648 Preseparation Counseling Checklist for Active Component (AC), Active Guard Reserve (AGR), Active Reserve (AR), Full Time Support (FTS), and Reserve Program Administrator (RPA) Service Members. Command transition officers play a critical role in the transition process, particularly in the area of data collection and pre-separation counseling activities. As required by Federal law, the command transition officer is responsible for conducting mandatory pre-separation counseling and completing a DD Form 2648 or DD Form 2648-1 Transition Assistance Program (TAP) Checklist for Deactivating/Demobilizing National Guard and Reserve Service Members. Pre-separation counseling informs all separating members of the availability of permanent transition services and assists them in obtaining those services. For guidance on conducting pre-separation counseling and completing the DD Form 2648, see the NAVPERSCOM’s Transition GPS Web site at http://www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/career/transition/Pages/TAP.aspx.

   (a) Pre-separation counseling is not required for a Service member who is discharged or released before the completion of 180 continuous days or more of active duty.

   (b) Pre-separation counseling is required for all members who retire or separate due to a disability.
(2) Transition GPS Course. Prerequisites for attending the NAVPERSCOM’s Transition GPS course are located at: http://www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/career/transition/Pages/TAP.aspx. The 5-day course curriculum includes the components in subparagraphs 4c(2)(a) through 4c(2)(k).

(a) Resilient transition.

(b) Special issues.

(c) Considerations for families.

(d) Support systems.

(e) Value of a mentor.

(f) Stress management.

(g) Military occupational code crosswalk gap analysis.

(h) Financial planning.

(i) VA Benefits Briefings 1 and 2.

(j) DOL Employment Workshop.

(k) ITP review.

(3) Career Tracks. Additional Transition GPS career tracks, which consist of accessing higher education, career technical training, or entrepreneurship are mandatory if determined by the member and command transition officer that participation is required in order to achieve CRS.

(4) ITP. The ITP, an evolving document created and maintained by both officer and enlisted personnel, provides the framework to establish CRS and assesses their personal and professional preparedness to achieve defined CRS prior to separating from active duty. This ITP is developed when a Service member begins the transition process.
(5) Capstone. The capstone event is designed to evaluate Service member’s preparedness to successfully transition to a civilian career and determine whether CRS were met. Capstone is conducted by the transition staff at the supporting fleet and family support center (FFSC), or by the command transition officer if member cannot attend a scheduled FFSC event. Capstone must be conducted no later than 90 days prior to Service member’s anticipated separation. In the event of a short notice separation, DD Form 2958 Service Member Career Readiness Standards/Individual Transition Plan Checklist must be completed no later than the date of release from active duty as reflected on DD Form 214 Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty. Core components of capstone are per subparagraphs 4c(5)(a) through 4c(5)(e).

   (a) Review of DD Form 2958.

   (b) Evaluation of Service member’s CRS to determine whether they have met CRS based on defined post-transition goals (employment, education or technical training).

   (c) Command transition officer signature on DD Form 2958 upon verification of CRS.

   (d) Commander’s or designated representative’s signature on block 30 of DD Form 2958.

   (e) Warm hand-off of Service member by command transition officer to appropriate partner agencies (VA, DOL, SBA) for those deemed at risk of not meeting CRS. Service members who require additional assistance must be referred to additional training opportunities.

1. Commanders must ensure a warm handover is made to VA or DOL for transitioning Service members who, based on the commander's or his or her designee's judgment, do not have a post-transition housing plan at capstone.

2. Commanders must ensure a warm handover is made to the DOL for every transitioning Service member who does not separate with an honorable discharge.

d. Virtual Transition GPS Course. For Service members who are remotely assigned (greater than 50 miles from a supporting transition office that offers Transition GPS course), deployed, or are short notice separations with no Transition GPS quota available, a virtual Transition GPS course is available which meets the requirements of attending the 5-day course. For more information on virtual Transition GPS, see the NAVPERSCOM Transition GPS Web site at http://www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/career/transition/Pages/TAP.aspx.

e. RC Personnel. For RC specific guidance on Transition GPS execution by type of active duty orders a member is completing, see RC standard operating procedures via the NAVPERSCOM Transition GPS Web site at http://www.public.navy.mil/bupers-npc/career/transition/Pages/TAP.aspx.

f. Exemptions. Service members listed in subparagraphs 4f(1) through 4f(5) may be exempt from attending the DOL workshop portion only (pre-separation counseling, VA benefits brief and capstone are required for all personnel).

(1) Service members retiring with 20 or more years of active Federal Service.

(2) Service members of the AC or RC separating after serving 180 continuous days or more on active duty if they meet one of the criteria in subparagraphs 4f(2)(a) through 4f(2)(c).

(a) Able to confirm employment.

(b) Provide documented acceptance into an accredited technical training, undergraduate, or graduate degree program.

(c) Have previously attended the DOL Employment Workshop (TAP workshop).
(3) Service members who meet exemption requirements and waive DOL workshop attendance must self-certify exemption status on DD Form 2958. Members who are exempt may still participate in the DOL workshop if desired.

(4) Service members with specialized skills who, due to unavoidable circumstances, are needed to support a unit on orders to deploy within 60 days. The first commander in the Service member’s chain of command (commanding officer (CO), officer in charge (OIC)) must certify on the member’s DD Form 2958 any such request for exemption from the DOL Employment Workshop. A make-up plan must accompany the postponement certification.

(5) Flag officers are exempt from CRS, ITP, DD Form 2958, and capstone.

5. Transition GPS Documentation, Reporting and Tracking. Transition stakeholders must accurately record Service member’s participation and completion of all aspects of the TAP.

6. Benefits. Specific entitlements (extension of medical coverage, excess leave, permissive temporary duty (PTDY) for job and house hunting, hiring preference for nonappropriated fund instrumentalities (NAFI) positions) and priority affiliation RC units are granted to a limited, well-defined group of personnel who are involuntarily separated or retired. Per reference (a), previously authorized benefits (travel, transportation, household good storage, transitional commissary and exchange benefits, and transitional use of military housing) eligibility is extended to 31 December 2018.

   a. Transition Benefits - Separations. Certain involuntarily separated Service members are eligible for transition benefits. Eligibility for transition benefits depends on the nature and characterization of a Service member’s discharge. In general, members must meet the conditions in subparagraphs 6a(1) and 6a(2) to be eligible for benefits.

   (1) On active duty and involuntary separated with a qualifying separation program designator code.
(2) Were or will be discharged under conditions characterized as either “honorable” or “general under honorable” conditions.

b. Transition Benefits - Retirement. Service members involuntarily retired after 26 March 1992, as a result of a selected early retirement board (for all officer and enlisted personnel) or downward adjustment of high year tenure limits (pay grades E-6, E-7, and E-8) are eligible for transition benefits described in subparagraphs 6b(1) through 6b(3).

(1) Excess Leave and PTDY. Involuntary retired members may receive either excess leave for a period not to exceed 30 days or PTDY for a period not to exceed 20 days (30 days outside the continental United States) to facilitate Service member's relocation activities (such as job search and residence search). Leave and PTDY is to be provided unless to do so would interfere with military missions. If members take excess leave, it must be explained to members that they will have to pay for excess leave at retirement and dollar amount at issue.

(2) One-time Hiring Preference. Involuntary retired members and their family members may be provided a one-time preference in hiring by a NAFI. A member or family member may apply for a NAFI position before or after retirement. A person eligible for preference will be referred for selection only if they are among the best-qualified candidates after a competitive screening process is completed. Preferential hiring is terminated upon placement in, or declination of (whichever occurs first), a NAFI position for which application is made. To receive this benefit, members and family members must show proof of involuntary retirement status at time of application (i.e., selected early retirement notification letter, separation orders, or letter from their CO).

(3) Implementation. Each CO must ensure separating and retiring Service members, and their family members, receive transition services and benefits to which they are entitled. To meet this requirement, each CO must designate a command transition officer who must coordinate the command’s transition program and work closely with the TAP FFSC staff. The command transition officer identifies and personally counsels every prospective separating and retiring member, advising them of locally available transition and resource assistance. The command career counselor must ensure that the transition curriculum outlined in the MLC is incorporated into the appropriate timeframe of a Service member’s career, typically during career development boards for enlisted personnel. The reporting senior must ensure MLC curriculum is incorporated into mid-term counseling for officers in the appropriate timeframe of their careers.
